

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

The present division of this catalogue is a mere finding-list, or check-list, of that considerable part of the President White Library not included in its special collections. So far as possible, the titles have been limited to one or two lines; and the descriptions also have been made very brief. If they are full enough for identification, it is all that has here been sought. The catalogue is by authors alone, with no subject-entries under persons or places.

Much of the miscellaneous matter belonging to the collection it has been deemed needless to catalogue at all. Thus, its guide-books, its public documents, its miscellaneous pamphlets on other than historical subjects, are left unmentioned here. By an oversight, due mainly to the absence of the librarian during much of the period of printing, sundry titles belonging to special collections—notably to those on the Inquisition and on the Torture—are briefly repeated in the present division.

The care of editing this portion of the catalogue and of seeing it through the press has fallen almost wholly on Mr. Alexis Babine, now called to the more responsible post of Librarian of the University of Indiana. He has brought such uniformity as was possible into the work of divers earlier cataloguers. This miscellaneous division of the catalogue is given to the press before part III because more urgently needed by those charged with the administration of the University Library.

As in the other divisions of the catalogue, a D at the end of the title means that the University Library possessed already a duplicate of the work described; a d, that it had a virtual duplicate, though not an exact one. In either case, the copy described remains the property of Mr. White. An R denotes a book reserved by Mr. White under one of the other provisions of his letter of gift (see the preface to part I of this catalogue). All books not thus marked are now in the keeping of the University Library.

Beside the collections on the Protestant Reformation and the French Revolution, which form the subjects of parts I and II of the catalogue, the special collections not covered by this finding-list are: (1) Witchcraft, (2) Torture, (3) the Inquisition, together with considerable bodies of contemporary pamphlets on (1) the Thirty Years' War, (2) the Fronde (Mazarinades), (3) the English Revolution, (4) the Napoleonic era, (5) the American Civil War, and furthermore the miscellaneous manuscripts of the Library.

SIZES OF BOOKS.

The disuse of fixed sizes of paper consequent on the improvement of the printing-press has long made useless and well nigh impracticable the old nomenclature for the forms of books. In view of this, the American Library Association has urged its entire abandonment and the substitution of an exact metric measurement of each volume. That suggestion is here adopted. Where the book is of the usual shape (the width about three-fifths the height—as in what are currently called 'octavos'), the height alone is given (as '23h'); where otherwise, both height and width, the height preceding (as '23×20'). Fractional centimeters are reckoned as whole ones. These measurements may, for the most part, be readily translated into the old nomenclature (as now used by American libraries) by means of the following

TABLE OF EQUIVALENTS.

It is thought unnecessary to catalogue here copies of the standard English versions—those of 1611 and 1881. All these are retained by Mr. White. The early English and German versions possessed by the library are described in its Protestant Reformation catalogue. There, too, may be found the commentaries by reformers. Several notable additions, such as the September Bible and the Wartburg Bible, await a supplement to that catalogue.

Pfinzing, M. Die Ehr und mannliche Thaten des Ritters Tewardanck. Franckfurt [am Main], [1553]. 31×20. ff. [112]. This famous romantic poem commemorates the adventures of the Emperor Maximilian in his wooing of Mary of Burgundy. It is said to have been written at the suggestion of the hero himself, for the delight of his grandson, afterward Charles V. A key to the characters is given in the preface. The first edition which appeared in 1517 was illustrated by Schöffelein, and is especially sought. The cuts of the Egenolff edition of 1553 (the one now in question) are wholly different, and the text, it is said, has been so changed by Burckhard Waldis, the editor, as to make it almost an entirely new poem. Pfinzing was the Emperor's chaplain.

Ff. 3 and 4, spite of their signatures (A iii and A iiij) belong after the t.-p., which is here on fol. 7. The sheet containing ff. 8 and 9 should come next, and is in its proper place, but is folded inside out—fol. 9 should precede fol. 8. According to the collation in Sabin's Dictionary, a leaf must be lacking in sig. A of the present copy: it probably contained the Philosophie partitio or tabular classification of knowledge, found in the other editions.

Sixtus IV (Francesco di Albescola della Rovere), Pope. [Indulgence, 1482.]

This letter of indulgence is dated 'M.CCCC.LXXXII.' and is one of those prepared by 'frater Petrus Gardianus & predicator conventus Monacensis ordinis minorum subcommissarius.' This individual indulgence was probably never used, as the blanks for the name of the fortunate sinner and the day of the granting are still unfilled; yet it is not easy to account, in this case, for the seal, the remains of which are plainly visible.

- Traité des trois imposteurs.
Amsterdam, 1776. 18×10. pp. [142]. 'Le titre de ce livre a suffi pour lui donner de la vogue, bien des lecteurs ayant pu le considérer comme la traduction du fameux ouvrage latin de Tribus Impostoribus, dont l'existence a été longtemps un problème. Quant à l'ouvrage français du même titre, ce n'est que 'la Vie et l'Esprit de M. Benoît Spinoza,' rédigé, suivant Prosper Marchand, par Vroes, conseiller de la cour de Brabant à La Haye, et revu, pour la partie du style, par J. Aymon et J. Rousset. Le même Prosper Marchand prouve assez bien que ce dernier ouvrage ne peut être du médecin Lucas, disciple de Spinoza.'—Barbier.
